President's Letter

Fall 2023

Dear Members and Friends,

On behalf of the TCHCC Board of Directors and our Volunteers, best wishes for 2024. Thank you for your generosity this past year and for your donations and support in participating in our events.

This edition of Nás Český Život includes photos of dedicated events from September through December of 2023. Volunteers working behind the scenes to make TCHCC a beautiful place to display our Czech history are not always captured on photos.

We are so grateful to the volunteers who come regularly to greet our visitors, to help in the Melnar library with genealogy, and to assist in the Kopecky Gift Shop, to open the Czech Village for tours and to keep the grounds and buildings maintained. Thank you to those who prepare luncheons for our scheduled tours and prepare lessons for our school children. Our volunteers will tell you that sharing Czech heritage and history is a wonderful experience for them. If you are interested in joining our team, please call me.

TCHCC President
Retta Slavik Chandler

We had a successful year and look forward to continuing with the projects that are ongoing.

We look forward to seeing all of you this coming year. The Blacksmith Shop is almost complete. Soon, we will begin construction on the Brethren Church.

Thank you to TOCA member organizations for being a part of TCHCC during Heritage Festival and Muziky. We are grateful for the work these organizations are doing in promoting Czech heritage and culture. We would like to remind you of the TOCA Award Dinner on Saturday, March 16, 2024, in the Pavilion Hall, when each organization will choose one of their members for a special award.

I sincerely thank you for your support.

Elizabeth Patalik has chosen to recognize Fr. Marcus Valenta this year and honor him with the Flag Sponsorship. Perhaps someone else may like to do the same for someone they respect next year. See the last page of the newsletter for details.

FATHER MARCUS A. VALENTA was born of a Czech father (Leo William Valenta), who died before he was one year old, and a German mother (Margaret Hermes) at Sweet Home, Texas on June 26, 1905. Being brought up by his German relatives, he did not learn the Czech language. He attended St. Louis College (later called St. Mary's College), San Antonio from 1922 to 1923 and next studied at St. John's Seminary, San Antonio from 1923 to 1926, where he expressed a desire to join the class in Czech, but he was about to continue his studies in Rome, Italy, and Latin of course. He studied at the American College in Rome in 1926 to 1930 and was ordained a priest there on December 21, 1929.

He served as assistant at St. Ann's Church, San Antonio from August 14, 1930 to 1933; next as Chaplain of the "Tree Army" (Civilian Conservation Corps, the C.C.C.) from June 15, 1933 to 1934; next as administrator of Sacred Heart Church, Rockne, Texas July 15, 1934 to 1935; next as administrator of the (Italian) St. Francis di Paula Church, San Antonio from 1935 to 1940. On October 19, 1940 he enlisted in the U.S. Air Force as Chaplain.

Service carried him in the middle of 1941 to Honolulu on Oahu Island, Hawaii, and Canton Island. He lived through the horrors of December 7, 1941 at Pearl Harbor, Hawaii and ministered to the casualties. He saw service at Leyte, Saipan, the Solomon Islands and Okinawa. He was present at the Japanese surrender on August 5, 1945 and served as Chaplain in the Army of Occupation in Japan. He had refused transfer and promotion, in order to stay with the assault troops across the immense combat zones of the Pacific. He served throughout World War II and holds the longest overseas combat-zone record of any Chaplain in the history of the U.S.A. He returned to the U.S.A. on January 3, 1946 and was in the Active Reserves in February 15, 1946.

He served as pastor of St. Philip's Church, El Campo, Texas with mission of St. John at Taiton from April 1, 1946 to 1955 and from then to 1980 as pastor of St. Mary's Church, Praha, Texas, where he sponsored a solemn Armistice Day observance with the cooperation of the Army.

He was a lifetime Chaplain of the Pearl Harbor Survivors' Association and annually promoted the solemn military observance of Veterans Day Service at Praha. The traditional solemn celebration of the parish Feast of the Assumption on August 15 on the actual date, Sunday or weekly, attracting thousands of former parishioners and their descendants and friends from far and near. Rev. Marcus Anthony Valenta died on September 9, 1984 in Houston and is buried in Queen of Peace Cemetery, Sweet Home, Texas. (Short Biographies of Czech and other Priests in Texas, Msgr. Alois Morkovsky, 1982.)

A Summer in Spillville in 1893: A Historical Novel

was presented by author Barbara Ortwein October 6, 2023 at TCHCC with a book signing

Czech composer Antonin Dvořák spent a year in New York at the National Conservatory of Music of America and then ventured out to rural Iowa in 1893. He encountered a countryside similar to his Bohemian homeland and met immigrants who enriched his journey. Author Barbara Ortwein wrote this story through the eyes of Antonin's daughter and retells the experiences of Dvořák and his family in the small rural town of Spillville, Iowa.

A great book for music teachers. Books are available for sale in the Gift Shop.

CHRISTMAS HOLIDAY EVENTS AT TCHCC

Bruno Shimek and his team from Caldwell demonstrated the art of making kolač on December 2, 2023 in the Hanslik Hall at TCHCC. Assisting him was Stan Vitha who demonstrated the making of a large koláče (or Chodko Koláče). Bruno's other two helpers were his sister Jo Ann Shimek and friend Brian Estlund. The team prepared the food and provided helpful hints to those in attendance. Bruno has won the State Bake Off Contest held at the Caldwell Koláč Festival three times and is now a retired champion. He is one of the members of the Caldwell Koláč Festival Committee who demonstrates and organizes the competition every year.

Hands-on demonstrations were a part of the class.

A Rosette Making Class was held on December 9, 2024 by Kathleen Svatek and her assistant (daughter) Kim who shared hints and family traditions with the audience.

TCHCC closed out the year with a Christmas Party for weekly volunteers and staff. George Koudelka led everyone in a sing-a-long of Czech Christmas Carols.

A TREMENDOUS THANK YOU goes out to Second Chance Emporium, La Grange, Texas for their generous donation to TCHCC.

REV. STEPHEN NESRSTA HONORED

Fr. Stephen Nesrsta, currently pastor of Holy Trinity Parish in Corn Hill, received the Memorial Medal from the Czech Bishops' Conference in recognition of his many years of hosting Czech and Moravian deacons and priests to Texas. Fr. Stephen Nesrsta began welcoming clergy in 1998 and has welcomed 68 Czech and Moravian clergy since then. The visitors arrive every summer and stay for a few weeks.

"The program helps the deacons improve their English-speaking skills, get an experience of the Catholic Church in the United States, to visit Czech/Moravian settlements in Texas and to learn their history, and to get a better view of the U.S." Father Nesrsta said.

Another task he undertakes is helping them with research materials as well as proofreading their correspondence.

He is very appreciative of his Moravian heritage and sees this program as a way of giving back to the land and people from where his family came.

Fr. Stephen Nesrsta received the Memorial Medal awarded to him by the Czech Bishops' Conference.

As an example of his dedication, Fr. Nesrsta recently brought two additional clergymen to visit TCHCC. Pictured l-r: Fr. Tomas Zamecnik, Fr. Stephen Nesrsta, Deacon Josef Kvapilik.
